Membership Application

Please complete this membership application to join RCORE: Retired City of Roseville Employees or update your membership information. The purpose of the group is to keep former City of Roseville employees connected during retirement, share information of interest to City retirees, such as pension and health care benefits, advocate with local and state officials for public retirees' rights and benefits, and provide opportunities to socialize with former co-workers.

Please complete the application information below and return it to address at the top of this page. Your completed application, together with your dues payment of $20.00 per year, will entitle you to RCORE membership, as well as access to the RCORE website: www.rcore.org.
